To add fun to the routine schedule, children were engaged in making Goodie Bags as an Art and Craft Activity.

23rd December, 22

It's Christmas Time !!

Christmas was celebrated on 23rd Dec with great joy.

The school was brightly decorated with candles, balloons, stars, Christmas tree and bells.

The school was a perfect picture of celebration with party spirit in full swing.

Children dressed in vibrant red / white / green coloured clothes. The day started with carol singing. As a part of Christmas Bonanza, various games like pin the red nose, treasure hunt and many more were enjoyed by the children. They also learnt the message of loving, caring and sharing by exchanging their Goodie bags.

The highlight of the day was Santa Claus who brought smiles on the faces of the children by distributing sweets and wishing them all Merry Christmas.

It has been rightly said -

"Science is a process that takes us from confusion to understanding"

So, for better understanding of facts, fun science activities were performed by Raindrops students of class 1-5

There Is No End To Learning

Students of Raindrops School class 5 with faculty members were taken for an Industrial visit to Gursham Pharmaceuticals on 17th March, 2023. The owner of the factory Mr. Manmohan Singh received everyone and gave a brief introduction about the factory. The children got information pertaining to Oral Liquid Section, Eye/Ear Drops Section and Ointment Section. They saw various machines like planetary mixer, compressor, distilled water plant, crimping and sealing machine, ointment filler machine. The children were informed about proper functioning of the machines and how the medicines are preserved and packed. Mr. Manmohan offered juices to the students and thus, this became a fun, informative, interesting and a successful visit. Our special thanks to Principal Mrs. Amita Malik and the factory owner who took the initiative for this memorable visit.

FEW PICKUPS OF THE INDUSTRIAL VISIT

'HEALTH IS WEALTH'

On 17th March'23 our respected Principal Mrs Amita Malik took the initiative of sending class4 students of Raindrops School to Nanak Dairy in Saharanpur.

The students were excited to see the huge plant. The incharge of the dairy showed and explained different machinery and the various processes involved in making of cheese and curd. The children were enlightened and they understood better the importance of healthy food. Mr Ankush Arora offered cheese to the students which they relished.

Few glimpses of Nanak Dairy.

On March 18, Classes 4 and 5 went on an educational tour to Postal Training Centre in Saharanpur. Mr. Sushil Kumar Rai is the present Director and Mr. G.M Taneja is the Deputy Director of PTC.

Mr. Narendra Kumar was the appointed person to show and help us to know more about the centre. Children saw the auditorium, recreational club, open theatre, Madhuban, a garden full of trees and beautiful flowers with a big water tank which was built by the Britishers that still supplies water to the campus.

After that, the children visited two museums. Philatelic Museum, where the children saw rare stamps and specimen signatures of Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru, our first PM and other various leaders. The other interesting pieces were a pair of ivory tusks of an elephant that had served for 18 years and died in the year 1990.

A letter of King Edward's period, number of old books, letter boxes, forms, scales, spears, belts and service records of Sir Bahadur Saligram, the first Indian Post Master were interesting things to see. A special vote of thanks was given by the students and Neena Mam (HOD S.St) to the Director of P.T.C

Children enjoyed and learnt a lot from the trip.

Farewell 20th March, 23

Raindrops School hosted a grand farewell ceremony for the students of Class V batch of 2022-23 on 20th March 2023. The Girls and Boys of Class IV organised the event in unison, to bid a lovely and joyful farewell to their seniors. Following some sizzling song and dance performances by the talented students, Honourable Director Mrs Nargis Malik and Respected Principal Mrs Amita Malik addressed the students wishing them success in their future endeavours. Their addresses were followed by some games and finally everyone enjoyed some mouth watering snacks.

Farewell is just a way to say 'Bye for Now.'
